

Arts & Nature, Calumet Region & Nationwide

Saturday, November 12th, 2016

Paul H. Douglas Center for Environmental Education
100 N. Lake St.
Gary, IN 46403

Free and open to the public, all ages!

Thanks for coming to “Arts & Nature, Calumet Region & Nationwide,” an event at the Indiana Dunes National Lakeshore that celebrates IDNL’s 50th Anniversary and the National Park Service’s Centennial. Today’s program—

- 🌿 Enjoy a soundwalk along the Miller Trail co-led by MaryAm Ghadiri and Ben Gottesman. MaryAm and Ben are involved with the Center for Global Soundscape Studies at Purdue University. (11 a.m.)
- 🌿 Arts making activities inspired by nature (ongoing)
- 🌿 Join a guided photography walk in Miller Woods, led by Sam Love of the Calumet Artist Residency. Sam will share insights learned from over 15 years of photographing this special area. (1 p.m.)
- 🌿 Poetry readings and performances (1-3 p.m.)

The arts making activities include leaf poem collage-making, mixed media artworks, and other activities. The poetry readings and performances will be by youth and adults, including high school and college students from the Calumet Region (including Gary and Chicago).

“Arts & Nature, Calumet Region & Nationwide” is presented by the Borderbend Arts Collective, in partnership with the Indiana Dunes National Lakeshore, Calumet Artist Residency, Center for Global Soundscape Studies, and Midwest Society for Acoustic Ecology.

Thanks to all of you who have come out to join us during “Arts & Nature, Calumet Region & Nationwide; the Indiana Dunes National Lakeshore for allowing us to have this event hosted here; the staff of the Paul Douglas Center for Environmental Education for collaborating with us on this; the individuals and partnering organizations that have organized and facilitated today’s program; and the volunteers who have helped to make this program possible.
